

ABOUT THE EVENT

Downtown Washington Farmers Market

June-August | Saturdays at The Commons

A true downtown staple, the Downtown Washington Farmers Market transforms The Commons into a vibrant weekly gathering place all summer long. Featuring fresh produce, home-baked goods, local honey, flowers, and artisan products, the market is often paired with live music, food trucks, and pop-up community activities that keep visitors downtown longer. This event draws consistent crowds week after week, creating repeated exposure for sponsors and a trusted community tradition that residents plan their summers around.
